Foremost Evaporated Milk is fresher-tasting!

Here's how to make this taste test, right in your own kitchen. Buy one can of Foremost Evaporated Milk, and one can of any other brand you like.

Open them both. Sniff them. Taste them. Use them in your favorite recipes. Then, if you don't agree that Foremost fresher-tasting Evaporated Milk is superior in every way (including its easy-to-open can!), send us the labels from both cans and we'll refund the purchase price of both. Mail labels, with your name and address, to: Foremost Dairies, Inc., Dept. MP, PO Box 2444, San Francisco 26, California

"Is this really evaporated milk?", you'll say, when you see Foremost's creamy-white color-when you taste its pure fresh flavor! No trace of the brownish color, the over-cooked "canny" taste you've known in other evaporated milks.

Foremost's exclusive heat-processing takes only seconds—10 times faster than other brands. And what a difference that speed makes in flavor, in color, in natural goodness.

Discover the dramatic difference in Foremost fresher-tasting Evaporated Milk today; get several cans at your grocer.
